Details of the valid acceptances and excess applications for the Warrants received are as follows:

The balance of the 12,052,875 Warrants available under the Preferential Offering ("Available Warrants"), which were not taken up by Entitled Shareholders pursuant to the Preferential Offering were allocated to satisfy Excess Applications. In accordance with the terms and conditions of the Preferential Offering, the Company had, in the allocation of Available Warrants to satisfy Excess Applications, given preference to Shareholders for the rounding of odd lots, and the Directors and substantial shareholders of the Company, including Mr Lim Chap Huat, had been ranked last in priority.

1.3 Allotment of Warrants

CDP will send depositors with valid acceptances and successful applications for excess Warrants, by ordinary post on or about 14 July 2016, at their own risk, to their respective mailing addresses as maintained with CDP, a notification letter stating the number of Warrants that have been allotted to their respective Securities Accounts. In the case of scripholders with valid acceptances and successful applications of excess Warrants, Warrant certificates will be sent by ordinary post, at their own risk, to their respective mailing addresses as maintained with the Share Registrar on or about 13 July 2016.

2. REFUND FOR INVALID OR UNSUCCESSFUL ACCEPTANCES AND EXCESS APPLICATIONS

Monies accompanying invalid or unsuccessful acceptances and/or Excess Applications will be refunded, without interest or any share of revenue or other benefit arising therefrom, within three (3) business days after the date of commencement of crediting of the Warrants on 14 July 2016 by means of a crossed cheque drawn on a bank in Singapore and sent by ordinary post at the applicants' own risk to their mailing addresses maintained with CDP or the Share Registrar, as the case may be, or (where such acceptances or applications have been made through automated teller machines) by crediting the bank accounts of the relevant applicants with the Participating Bank (as defined in the Instruction Booklet).

3. ISSUE AND LISTING OF THE WARRANTS

The Company expects that 167,369,000 Warrants will be issued on or about 13 July 2016 pursuant to the Preferential Offering.

The Board of Directors of the Company would like to thank all Shareholders for demonstrating their support for the Company by participating in the Preferential Offering and enabling the successful completion of the Preferential Offering.

In-principle approval granted by the SGX-ST for the listing of and quotation for the Warrants and the New Shares on the Main Board of the SGX-ST is not to be taken as an indication of the merits of the Preferential Offering, the Warrants, the New Shares, the Shares, the Company and/or its subsidiaries.
